Music for Youth Foundation

the past five years, MYF has given over $2.2 million in grants to over 40 programs. These grants provide top-notch education and instruction with a special emphasis on students from underprivileged areas. In addition, MYF selects extraordinarily talented young musicians for career building $25,000 scholarships on an annual basis, thereby helping to sustain the next generation of artists and teachers.

The Music for Youth Foundation has two primary missions: To identify, fund and lend our experience to innovative programs that make quality music education available to young people, and to create scholarship opportunities for exceptionally talented youth who choose to make music their life's work.

MYF raises funds from the music industry and from other private entities to create resources for outstanding and innovative music programs in many disciplines. In
